Event description:
A lecture titled “Sustainable Future: Integration of Green Technologies into Higher Education” was held on April 28, 2026, in Kosovska Mitrovica, at the Faculty of Technical Sciences. The event was opened with introductory remarks by the Dean of the Faculty of Technical Sciences, prof. dr Zoran Golubović who emphasized the importance of aligning higher education with contemporary environmental and technological challenges. Following the opening, Goran Lazić, a representative of the Erasmus+ office, provided an overview of ongoing Erasmus+ projects and their role in supporting sustainability and innovation in education. Representative of University rectorate Miloš Subotić also greeted the attendees and made a review of the ongoing projects coordinated by UPKM. The main lecture was delivered by Prof. Dr. Siniša Ilić, who spoke about the integration of green technologies into academic curricula and the importance of educating future professionals in this field. During this lecture Erasmus+ project SPHERE was promoted. The event gathered representatives from all faculties of the university, highlighting a shared commitment to sustainable development and interdisciplinary cooperation in higher education.
